JUNE DEVOTIONAL FOR NEWSLETTER FROM PASTOR BARB

"The Lord will guide you continually." — Isaiah 58:11 (NRSV)

Dear Church Family,

As we enter these summer months, I find myself reflecting with deep gratitude on the journey we have shared together. It has been one of the great blessings of my life to serve as your pastor—to walk with you in faith, to share in your joys and sorrows, and to witness the many ways God has been at work among us.

Now, as many of you know, I am preparing to retire from pastoral ministry. This is not an easy moment for me, because this church—and each of you—has been such an important part of my life. But it is also a moment filled with peace and trust.

The words from Isaiah remind us: "The Lord will guide you continually."

Not just in the past, not only in the present—but into the future. I believe that with all my heart.

God has guided us through every season we have shared. God is guiding me into this new chapter of retirement. And God is already guiding you as you prepare to welcome your new pastor, Rev Jim House and his wife Ange and their family. I am so grateful that you will soon be in his care and leadership. I invite you to welcome him with the same warmth, openness, and love that you have so generously shown to me. The same Spirit that has been at work among us will continue to move, to grow, and to lead this congregation forward.

Transitions can be tender. There is a mix of emotions—gratitude, sadness, hope, and anticipation. All of that is part of the journey. But through it all, we trust in a faithful God who never leaves us.

As I step into retirement, I carry you with me in my heart and in my prayers. And I trust that God has wonderful things ahead for this church. Thank you—for your faith, your kindness, your support, and your love. May you continue to follow where God leads, knowing always that you are held in God's faithfulness.

With love and gratitude,

Pastor Barb
